

DPP & OFAX OVERVIEW

Laura Mondragón, Assistant Director
Regan Kaplan, Associate Director

Oregon State
University

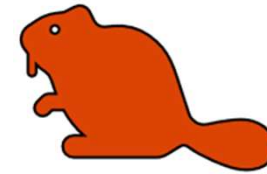

Key Topics

- DPP Overview
- Compliance Concerns
- OFAX data exchange
- Revised Consortium Agreement
- Open Discussion Questions

DPP Overview

- DPP allows undergraduate students to be jointly admitted with OSU and any of our community college partner schools
 - Flexible and affordable pathway
- DPP is open to all undergraduate students pursuing their Bachelor's degree
- Must apply for DPP
- Must designate a HOME & PARTNER School
 - Home School administers Financial Aid and/or Scholarships

Compliance Concerns

- Pell Intensity
- Disbursement
 - Concurrent enrollment/disbursement errors
- Census
- R2T4
- Satisfactory Academic Progress assessment
 - Repeat courses
- NSC/FVT/GE Reporting
- Recent home school requests from students

OFAX data exchange

- OSU will be requiring all partner schools to use OFAX 25-26 academic school year
- File exchange Calander
 - Need student data PER exchange agreement
- We value your Partnerships
 - Can assist with OFAX support
 - Provide necessary training
 - Data exchanging troubleshooting problems

Updated Consortium Agreement

Highlights

- We want to renew agreements with all DPP partners before summer term 2025.
- Reorganized the order/structure of the sections.
- The agreement reinforces the need to use OFAX to exchange student enrollment, grade, and aid data.
- The agreement reinforces the need to review the document and recommit as needed or every five years.

Discussion Questions

- What does your tech support look like at your school?
- What management software does your school use?
- Suggestions for more support between OSU and your school
- How do you learn about admitted DPP student?
- How does staffing look like at your school? Is there a point of contact who specifically manages/processes DPP?

Questions?

Contact Us

- Phone: (541) 737-2241
- Email: DPP@oregonstate.edu
- Call-in hours:
 - 10:00am – 4:30pm Monday – Friday

Home Page: partnerships.oregonstate.edu

